UNSW Sydney at a glance

UNSW Sydney is ranked 43rd in the world overall and 27th in the world for employer reputation¹. We are globally recognised for innovative teaching, world-leading research and our state-of-the-art facilities. Our focus is on transforming research discoveries into successful innovations to benefit society, the economy and future generations. We are a member of the most prestigious university networks and we are located in one of the best cities in the world, Sydney. Our university attracts over 60,000 students including 16,000 international students from more than 120 countries.

Campus location

UNSW Sydney is perfectly located between world-famous beaches and a bustling international city that is home to more global firms than any other in Australia. Coming to a multicultural city like Sydney means you'll enjoy around 236 days of sunshine a year and get to mix with students from many different countries.
